

TRENT BAUMANN
'BIRDMANN'

"The ideas he plays with sparkle with originality, approaching the art of comedy from the most obtuse angles...brilliantly ingenious." –chortle.co.uk

Surreal Side Show, Charismatic Comedy, and Vivacious Vaudeville

Strange but True! A man like no other man, a birdman.

One of Australia's most renowned new vaudeville comics, the highly skilled Birdmann (aka Trent Baumann), is one of the new breed of sophisticated, daring, and challenging performers.

Birdmann is humorous and absurd with a special new vaudevillian style and is reminiscent of Houdini, Chaplin, and Dada.

Witness Birdmann's weird and wonderful ways that are both old world and cutting edge, beautiful and challenging, theatrical yet simple, and utterly original.

Acts of wonder for your delight can include appliance taming, bottle sucking, plastic bag juggling, chair balancing, origami and escapology.

The last remaining birdman will entertain and enthrall you with things you've never seen before and may never see again!!!

See one man take to the stage or street to create magnificent moments from the strange to the sublime.

"He is Funny." –The Age
