The 4 Noels in DOOM RIDERS Assembly Rooms @ George Street, 4 – 28 August 2006 Produced by Little Red Delicious

Experience physical comedy delivered at break-neck speed in this Gothic Horror genre spoof with the award winning 4 Noels.

Think Frankenstein meets The Exorcist - only funny. In this tale of murky goings-on in the remote village of Steaming Heape. Hammer Horror clichés get well and truly hammered by The 4 Noels. Expect mysterious events, unforgettable characters, the supernatural, innocent victims, fantastical beasts and an evil mastermind, all with a 4 Noels twist. With their finely honed physical comedy, you'll also find a mix of gangster rap, dance numbers, pop songs, mime and slapstick.

These 21st Century Marx Brothers, John Forman, Jesse Griffin and James Pratt are back with their uniquely inventive and dynamic brand of narrative comedy. Following their 1999 Edinburgh Fringe sold out show, The Magnificent Seventeen, comes a new highly energised comic theatre experience like no other.

Formed in 1997, The 4 Noels have performed extensively throughout Australasia including the Sydney Opera House and the nationwide Melbourne International Comedy Roadshow. With multiple sold out seasons at New Zealand and Australian Comedy, Fringe, and Arts Festivals, The 4 Noels have an inimitable relationship and style of physical comedy fusing improvisation, mime, character comedy and singing. Their performance style riot delivered at break-neck speed has earned them a number of awards and nominations including two prestigious Barry Award nominations for most outstanding show at The Melbourne International Comedy Festival. Jesse Griffin is also appearing at Baby Belly 3 in his solo comedy show, The Wilson Dixon Hour.

'relentlessly funny' Sydney Metro, 'not to be missed' Evening Post, NZ,

'You'll be lucky to stop laughing' Wentworth Courier AUS,

'awe-inspiring ... multi talented 4 Noels' Scotsman
