ALI MCGREGOR'S MIDNIGHT LULLABIES

Fresh from La Clique and The Opera Burlesque, acclaimed Australian soprano Ali McGregor and her autoharp enter the sometimes eerie world of the Midnight Lullaby. From Tom Waits to Hugo Wolf, Radiohead to George Gershwin. Ali will be accompanied on this journey by the incomparable Ben Hendry on percussion.

Ali McGregor, a principal soprano at Opera Australia for over 5 years, adds her classical experience to her flair for original interpretations of rock, pop and indie standards. Her version of Radiohead's Creep that she performed as part of the sell out Spiegel tent show La Clique, has now taken her to private parties for the likes of Elton John and Sir Bob Geldof. This program sees her tackle some of her favourite songs from a huge range of musical genres.

'.. a slender, luscious, doe-eyed, man-eater made of the finest Dresden china' Sunday Times UK

'Gorgeous opera diva Ali McGregor doesn't just steal your breath, but your heart and soul too' Chortle, UK

'..one of the most beautiful and vivacious women in Australia..' Herald Sun
